

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY
The State University System of Florida

Office of Information Services
223-2300

January 17, 1972

Donald F. Cook has been named Assistant Director of Finance and Accounting at Florida International University, the new state university in Miami.

Formerly the administrative supervisor in the Department of Biological Structure at the University of Miami School of Medicine, Cook has been in the accounting field since 1967.

He began his career as the assistant business manager of Claflin College in Orangeburg, South Carolina. From June, 1969, to May, 1970, he served as the semi-senior accountant of the Amerada Hess Corporation, Hess Oil and Chemical Division. During 1970, he also served as a Medicare auditor for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Florida before joining the University of Miami staff.

Born in Daytona Beach, Florida, Cook attended high school in Deland, Florida, and received a bachelor of science degree in accounting and a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Florida A & M University in 1967. In 1968, he completed a course in cobal programming at a commercial college in Columbia, South Carolina, and in 1970, was graduated as a salesman from the Central New Jersey Real Estate School in Piscataway, New Jersey. He is currently working on his master of science degree in accounting from the University of Miami.

Cook is a member of the American Accounting Association.

##

