

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

RAFE GIBBS

Biographical Sketch

A native of Yakima, Washington, he was graduated from the University of Idaho, where he received a Phi Beta Kappa key.

Prior to joining the University Relations staff at Florida International University in 1970, he was Director of Information at the University of Idaho for 21 years. He was also a newspaperman, serving on the Milwaukee Journal in Wisconsin for five years. During World War II, he was in the Air Force, attaining the rank of colonel.

A public relations consultant, he is also a free-lance writer, with more than 200 articles and short stories appearing in such varied magazines as Esquire, Nation's Business and Sports Afield. He is the author of the historical book, "Beacon for Mountain and Plain," and is a contributor to encyclopedias and English textbooks.

He is listed in such publications as "Who's Who in Public Relations," "Blue Book of Magazine Writers," "Contemporary Authors" and "Dictionary of International Biography."

Office of Information Services
223-2300
271