

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Dr. Michael Kobasky

Biographical Sketch

Dr. Michael Kobasky, Coordinator of Professional and Development Activities in the Division of University Services and Continuing Education at Florida International University, feels "right at home" on the Tamiami Campus, which was formerly an airport. He served for 20 years in the United States Air Force as a navigator and personnel officer, attaining the rank of major.

At Florida International, Dr. Kobasky is responsible for developing university-level programs for professional people such as architects, dietitians, engineers, landscape architects and nurses, as well as personnel in public administration.

For the last six years, he has been an educational coordinator and project director in the State University System of Florida, participating in research projects on land use and urban planning.

A native of Elizabeth, N.J., Dr. Kobasky received his bachelor, master and Ph.D. degrees from Florida State University.

X