

FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

JOHN E. LEWIS

Biographical Sketch

Dr. John E. Lewis serves as Dean of the School of Business and Organizational Sciences at Florida International University. His appointment to that position was approved by the Board of Regents on September 18, 1970.

Dr. Lewis was the head of the business school and Professor of Economics at the University of Alabama in Birmingham. He was the Associate Dean of the School of Business at Georgia State University in Atlanta prior to assuming the responsibility of developing a new School of Business at the University of Alabama in Birmingham.

At Florida International, he is involved in recruiting program directors and faculty; coordinating and developing curricula in cooperation with the College of Arts and Sciences and the other professional schools at the University; planning a graduate program for the school and developing close ties with the local business community.

Dr. Lewis began his career in higher education as a Research Associate in the School of Commerce at the University of Alabama in 1959. He was an Assistant Professor of Economics and Research Associate at Georgia State College in 1963-64 before becoming the Director of the Bureau of Business and Economic Research, and Professor in the College of Business Administration at the University of Tennessee in 1964.

From 1966 to 1968, he was Associate Dean, Professor of Economics and Acting Chairman of the Department of Finance at Georgia State College in Atlanta.

He is the author of numerous books, articles and papers on business, economics and finance. He is a member of the American Economic Association, Southern Economic Association, Beta Gamma Sigma and is a member of the Commission on Colleges for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Dr. Lewis holds his Ph.D. and M.B.A. degrees from the University of Alabama and a bachelor's degree from Georgia State ~~College~~. UNIVERSITY.

He and his wife have three children and live in Miami LAKES.

Office of Information Services
223-2300
1270