Alpha Xi Delta was founded locally on January 25, 1990 at Florida International University by 17 women whose goal was to leave a lasting impression of sisterhood. This year Alpha Xi hosted its second annual Fall Ball and all proceeds were donated to the Jimmy Ryce Foundation. The Ball successfully achieved its goal of promoting Greek unity at Florida International University and it was an honor to have Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ryce attend the event. Alpha Xi Delta is also very proud of holding the current title of Homecoming Queen, Greek Woman of the Year, Philanthropic Achievement of the Year, and the New Member Programming Award.

Alpha Xi Delta was established nationally by ten sisters at Lombard College, Galesberg, Illinois, on April 17, 1893 and has grown to over 200 chapters nationwide. Our newest chapter was founded in 1995 at the University of Central Florida. Alpha Xi Delta provides its members a continuing opportunity for personal and social development, leadership, service and sisterhood. Membership in Alpha Xi Delta is something that is forever. It is a special bond that is shared by thousands of sisters.

To be an Alpha Xi Delta is to be in a sorority "For All the Right Reasons".

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. is the oldest Greek letter organization founded by and for Black college women. The sorority was chartered at Howard University's campus in Washington D.C. on January 15, 1908. It was established by 16 young women who wanted to encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, unity among college women, and human service to others. Today, Alpha Kappa Alpha has more than 150,000 members world-wide, with more than 860 chapters in 42 states, the Virgin Islands, Bahamas, Bermuda, West Africa, Korea, Germany, and Great Britain.

Alpha Kappa Alpha is highly involved in community service, which is its primary focus. Targeted areas of service include education, health care, economic empowerment, family, the arts, and global issues. The sorority makes impact on these issues through such programs as: math and science literacy camps in several cities, the Cleveland Job Corps Center, Mississippi Health Project, and African Village Development Project. Alpha Kappa Alpha women can be found in all facets of professional life.

n March 17, 1917, a group of women formed a bond. That bond came to be known as Delta Phi Epsilon and was based on trust, love, and respect. Like the faces which make up D Phi E, the components we are about are many. Each is different, but all are interconnected. Delta Phi Epsilon is made up of five main ideals. We call them our five S's: Self, Sisterhood, Scholarship, Social, and Service.

The first of these is Self. What makes Delta Phi Epsilon great is that we encourage individuality. Each member of D Phi E is unique and is encouraged to be herself. Our strength lies in our diversity. The second S is Sisterhood. Sisterhood is what sorority life is all about. Sisterhood is having a place to call home, a family which accepts your strengths and weaknesses and helps you become the best you can be. Our third ideal is Scholarship. As a part of a sorority, one cannot overlook the main goal of university life: Education. Delta Phi Epsilon has maintained the highest GPA at Florida International University for over two years. The fourth S is Social. Delta Phi Epsilon allows one to meet people from different organizations and participate in events such as Homecoming and intramural sports. D Phi E has been awarded several times for its participation in these events. We have been named "Team Of The Year" and were the first at sorority to participate in all intramural sports. We also won second place overall in Homecoming 1996. Members of Delta Phi Epsilon are involved in Student Government, Peer Advising, as well as many clubs and organizations. Our final S is Service. D Phi E believes in giving back to the community and has participated in Habitat for Humanity, Children's Home Society, AIDS Walk-a-thons, Adopt-A-Wall, and many other community service activities. We also raise money for philanthropies such as Cystic Fibrosis and ANAD (Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders).

Delta Phi Epsilon symbolizes its motto "Esse Quam Videri," which means "To be rather than to seem to be". We are a well rounded organization made up of individuals who each have something wonderful to give. In essence, we are friends by chance, sisters by choice. From sisters of Delta Phi Epsilon, welcome to FIU! Be yourself and when you make your choice, just follow your heart.

Pelta Sigma Theta Sorority is a private, non-profit organization whose purpose is to provide services and programs to promote human welfare. The sorority boasts a membership of over 180,000 women with chapters in the United States, Virgin Islands, Korea, and Germany, making it the largest of the eight historically Black Greek fraternities and sororities.

The Sorority was founded in 1913 by 22 undergraduate women at Howard University, Washington, D.C. These young women wanted to use their collective strength to promote academic excellence and to provide assistance to the needy.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is a sisterhood of college-educated women committed to public service. A Delta is therefore, one who afirms, contributes, and works actively to achieve the organizational purpose of public service.

The Iota Pi City-Wide Chapter, chartered November 10, 1972 carries on the vision that marked the beginning of our illustrious sisterhood. Our chapter founders were women who saw the need for a sisterhood, the magnitude of Delta Sigma Theta, in the city of Miami. Here on campus, as well as on a local level, our programs included Habitat for Humanity, Apple Bee Teenage Pregnancy Prevention Program, AIDS Awareness, food and clothes drives for low-income families in the South Florida community, and any area where we feel our help is needed. Delta Women can be seen in all professions.

Excellence...A tradition 145 years strong.

hree young women of gracious dignity, outstanding personality, and noble idealism, founded Phi Mu 145 years ago at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia. These Phi Mu women set a standard of excellence in social, intellectual, and moral improvement which today's members emulate. Phi Mu sisters continue to attain such precedents in all 132 collegiate chapters, 170 alumnae organizations, and with over 200,000 members in the nation and abroad, including the Theta Gamma chapter at Florida International University.

Phi Mu sisters of Theta Gamma have excelled in campus activities such as being members and officers of Golden Key National Honor Society, Omicron Delta Kappa leadership honor society, Phi Kappa Phi, Honors College, and Kappa Delta Pi. We are proud of our Peer Advisors, Resident Assistants, Student Ambassadors, and participants in the 1996-1997 Homecoming Court.

Besides enjoying an active social calendar filled with parties and mixers with the fraternities, Phi Mu sisters provide service to our nearby philanthropy, Children's Miracle Network. We have been recognized both locally and nationally for our commitment to our philanthropic organization, having raised over $100,000. Additionally, our sisters have been recognized at the local and national level for their exemplary scholastic, philanthropic, and community achievements.

Phi Mu, the nation's second oldest fraternal organization for women, continues to lead in excellence, success, and sisterhood at Florida International University and world-wide.

Phi Mu...A lifetime of faithful sisterhood.

For over 80 years, the traditional ideals of sisterhood, scholarship, and service have been the basic foundations of Phi Sigma Sigma, which we, the Delta Kappa Chapter, proudly cherish. Founded in 1913 at Hunter College, New York, Phi Sig was established by ten women who strongly believed in a sorority which did not discriminate against women because of their race, color, or creed.

As the first national sorority at Florida International University, Phi Sig has strongly proven to "Aim High" in university activities such as holding leadership positions in organizations such as Peer Advisors, Student Government, FIU Golden Dazzlers, cheerleading, Mortar Board Honor Society, Omicron Delta Kappa leadership honor society, Order of Omega "Greek leadership honor society", Alpha Kappa Psi, Homecoming Queen, and Homecoming Princess.

Philanthropic activities have included the National Kidney Foundation, Diabetes Research Institute, Bowling for Kids Sake, United Way, Toys for Tots, and many more. This past year, our chapter raised the most money nationally at our sixth annual Rock-a-thon, benefiting the National Kidney Foundation. The Phi Sigs at Florida International University have received numerous national and divisional awards, one of our proudest being the National Outstanding Chapter Award. Phi Sigma Sigma are the reigning champions of Greek Week, as well as Homecoming Week Champions. We currently hold the title Homecoming Princess, Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl, Senior of the Year, President of the Year, and Peer Advisor of the Year. This year we also received recognition for our outstanding programming, sports, philanthropy, and overall achievement. Besides our accomplishment, what truly makes us unique are the special sisterhood, bonds, and frienships which we treasure in our hearts.

Throughout our history, we have won first and second place in Homecoming and placed in both Greek Week and the FIU Olympics. In addition, we have fundraised money to donate to the Special Olympics. Individually, Tri-Sigmas have been crowned Homecoming Queen and Homecoming Princess, and served as Peer Advisors, Student Government Senate Representatives, Student Government committee and election board members, honor society members, Student Ambassadors, and many other positions.

Tri-Sigma bases its sisterhood on three basic principles: to ensure a perpetual bond of friendship, to develop a strong womanly character, and to promote high standards of conduct. Tri-Sigmas love and devotion for each other is something each sister treasures. Tri-Sigmas are dedicated and hard-working and are always willing to lend a helping hand. These attitudes and accomplishments are what makes our sisters proud to be Tri-Sigmas!

Leta Phi Beta Sorority was founded at Howard University, Washington, D.C., on January 16, 1920, as the result of the encouragement given to our five founders by Charles and Langston Taylor, members of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. These Sigma brothers felt that the campus would benefit by the development of such an organization as sisters to the fraternity. Thus, Zetas and Sigmas became the first and only official Black Greek letter sister-brother organization.

Our sorority is founded upon the principles of finer womanhood, scholarship, community service, and sisterly love. With more than 500 collegiate and graduate chapters, our principles have spread all across the United States, and internationally to Liberia, Sierra Leone, Nigeria, Bahamas, Germany, St. Croix, and West Africa.

The sisters of the Sigma Delta Chapter of Zeta Beta Sorority, founded in August of 1973, at the University of Miami, have since grown into a metropolitan chapter. We now include members from Florida International University and Barry University.

Ipha Phi Alpha Fraternity was founded at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York in 1906. The fraternity was founded by seven men: Henry A. Callis, Charles H. Chapman, Eugene K. Jones, George B. Kelly, Nathaniel A. Murray, Robert H. Ogle, and Vertner W. Tandy. These seven distinguished men are affectionately referred to as the "Jewels" of the fraternity.

Initially the "Jewels" had created a social club, thereby allowing themselves to meet, fellowship, and bond as blacks in a predominately white scholastic atmosphere. This club steadily progressed into a literary society, where members studied, tutored, and often debated relevant issues of their time, in addition to social fellowship. The final stage of development was the forming of the fraternity. Membership has always been geared toward young men of character, scholarship, fellowship, and devotion to the cause. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. was the first black Greek-lettered fraternal organization formed.

The Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha maintain the beliefs of sincere brotherhood, leadership, education, preserving the chastity of women and community service. Alph Phi Alpha is dedicated to these principles, and use them to spread the light of the world and uplift mankind. The fraternity's aim is, "Manly deeds, Scholarship, and Love for all mankind".

Alpha Phi Alpha has always prided itself in its distinct heritage. In today's society whenever one finds successful, dedicated, and intellectual men, it is eminent that an Alpha man will be amongst them. Alpha men are represented in all facets of society, including politics, sports, social reformation, and many others.

Alpha undertook its first nationwide project in 1920, "Go to High School, Go to College". Since then other programs include, scholarships, voter registration drives, tutorial and summer programs, Head Start, National Assault on Illiteracy, and Boy Scouts of America.

he Xi-Kappa Chapter of the Kappa Sigma fraternity is the newest, and most rapidly growing, Greek-lettered organization on the Florida International University campus. Xi-Kappa received its Charter on December 7, 1996, with a Founding Father class of 21, and continued its legacy with its first pledge class (Alpha Class) in the Spring of 1997. Though Kappa Sigma is quite new, it is looking to pursue housing on campus and groundbreaking at the same time as other established fraternities.

An impressive bonus of this fraternity is the rich history, alumni base, and power on the national scale. Kappa Sigma is among the top five fraternities in size. Also, Kappa Sigma has the distinction of being the national fraternity that gives the most amount of money in scholarships to its undergraduate members each year.

Throughout history there have been a broad spectrum of Kappa Sigma men. Though brothers vary in backgrounds and in views, one thing remains constant, the ideals and sense of brotherhood that have been passed from Bologna, Italy in 1400 to Charlottesville, Virginia in 1869.

mega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University, Washington, D.C, on November 17, 1911, by four men. With its creation, they envisioned a fraternity that would attract the most intellectual and influential of men to aid a constantly challenging and changing society. It is the first historically black, Greek lettered organization founded on a historically black campus.

The purpose of Omega Psi Phi is to bring about a union of college men of simalar high ideals of scholarship and manhood in order to stimulate the attainment of ideas and ambitions of its members; occupy a progressive helpful and constructive place in the political life of the community and nation; foster the humanity, freedom, and dignity of the individual; and aid down trodden humanity in its effort to achieve higher economic and intellectual status.

Omega Psi Phi has assisted in the efforts of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), literacy, domestic, and gang violence, AIDS awareness, and many others. Also, the fraternity has established and mandated, national programs that target all facets of humanitarianism. Omega Men can be seen in all facets of the professional industry. Omegas can be found across the globe, including areas such as Germany, France, Africa, and Japan. As evidence, there are very few who have not been touched in their lives by the works and deeds of an Omega Man.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. is an international organization of professional men with membership over 150,000 strong with 700 chapters over the world. Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. is dedicated to enhancing minds and promoting fellowship through African-American freedom, justice, equal rights, and service, to American communities. Our National Programs are: Social Action, Bigger & Better Business. In order to implement these programs, the brothers of Phi Beta Sigma work with other affiliated organizations such as: National Pan-Hellenic Council, NAACP, United Negro College Fund, National Urban League, American Cancer Society, Congressional Black Caucus, National Coalition on Black Voters Registration, etc. There is much that can be written and said about the philosophy of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., but nothing said or done will be of any meaning unless the practice of that philosophy can be seen in terms of Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Service, through its members.

The Lambda Tau Chapter was established in the Fall of 1979, by Brother Ralph Hogges and Brother Earl Davis. At the time, both brothers felt the need for black unity at a relatively young university with a predominately white population. The first line that was initiated consisted of Brother Willie Gibson and Brother Elton Lee. These two men formed the foundation of the chapter, which grew in membership to nine members within six years. Today, almost two decades later, the chapter has overcome many struggles (including an inactive period from 1986-1988), to become one of the leading chapters of Social Action in the Southern Region. Along with our sisters of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., (Sigma Delta Chapter: FIU, UM), Lambda Tau has a good track record of various service projects with such sponsors as Big Brothers/Big Sisters, the March of Dimes of Dade County, the Diabetes Research in Miami, and the Adopt-A-Highway Program of the Florida Department of Transportation. From Fall 1988 until now, the chapter has participated in volunteer events on the Florida International University campus, as a way to keep brothers actively involved, and to prevent further deactivation. Even though the events were small, they all led to big things for Lambda Tau. In addition, the city of Miami is proud to have three other undergraduate chapters of Sigma who know how to represent: Beta Pi--Florida Memorial College, Delta Epsilon--University of Miami, and Rho Mu--Miami Dade Community College.

Phi Sigma Kappa is a life-long brotherhood dedicated to the betterment of the individual, the university community, and our world, by giving its members opportunities to develop leadership skills, participate in service to others, achieve academic excellence and practice personal integrity. Our membership includes former All-Dade athletes, Student Government Presidents, and Service Club representatives just to name a few. The Lambda Septaton Chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa at Florida International University simply refuses to accept second best in anything it does. Athletics are the foundation of the fraternity's brotherhood. Our most recent championship, that of soccer, was won in the Spring of 1997. Our football and basketball teams also pride themselves on their superiority and work ethic. Phi Sigma Kappa goes way beyond athletics in its experience of true fraternity. Annual fundraisers are held by Phi Sigma Kappa in order to help organizations such as Brothers to the Rescue as well as the Special Olympics. Phi Sigma Kappa was also recently honored as the Service Fraternity of the Year by the Interfraternity Council. Phi Sigma Kappa strives to make its members aware of the competition which surrounds it and helps its members excel at the expense of the very same competition.

Phi Sigma Kappa is involved actively on and off campus at the local, as well as national level. Alumni and undergraduates alike work together in personifying our three cardinal principles: Brotherhood, Scholarship, and Character. Phi Sigma Kappa helps you, the prospective member to open the door to deep and lasting fraternal ties to others with whom you will share common ideals and aspirations. Phi Sigma Kappa is not a support group or a means of purchasing friends like many fraternities have led people to think. Phi Sigma Kappa portrays an entirely unique message that many others only wish they could convey. Phi Sigma Kappa encourages individuality and inner strength. A Phi Sig Man is one of character and confidence. This is the reason that the local chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa has and will continue to set the standards of true fraternity at Florida International University.

Being a diverse fraternity, one can truly take advantage of any area of interest at FIU. We have brothers from all walks of life and from many different backgrounds. As a result, you can find your place in the best fraternity at FIU.

The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity is rich in history. As one of the nation's oldest and largest fraternities, Pi Kappa Alpha has changed the lives of over 150,000 men through its commitment to educational excellence, leadership, athletics, and integrity.

The Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity has set the standards in the Greek system at Florida International University. Since our beginning in 1993, Pi Kappa Alpha has dominated the IFC Greek Sports Cup for four years in a row. We have won the Academic Cup three years in a row. We are active in Student Government, Student Ambassadors, and Peer Advising.

As you can see, for the four years Pi Kappa Alpha has been here, we have excelled in every aspect. The men of Pi Kappa Alpha have proven their success on campus, on the field, and most importantly in the classroom. We certainly hope that you look around and ask questions about the fraternity that is best for you. We are confident that if you feel you are the best at what you do, then you will join an organization of men who believe the same. EPSILON

Jigma Phi Epsilon was among the first nationally chartered fraternities at Florida International University, and is currently the largest on both campuses. Our chapter, Florida Nu, is part of the Sigma Phi Epsilon National Fraternity. With over 270 chapters and 20,000 undergraduate members which make up Sigma Phi Epsilon, it is one of the largest fraternities in the country.

In our ten year history at Florida International University, Sigma Phi Epsilon has become one of the most involved organizations in the university. Sig Eps are continually involved as Peer Advisors, University Ambassadors, Student Government, Interfraternity Council, Greek Advisory Board, and Sig Ep intramural participation is one of the most complete available. Every season, we field teams for football, softball, basketball, volleyball, soccer, and many more. In addition to fielding all these teams, we were undefeated in football, softball, and volleyball.

Academic achievement is another main objective of every Sigma Phi Epsilon brother. Our academic programs involve weekly study halls, personal tutors, and Professor reviews. The Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation, part of our national organization, offers a Balanced Man Scholarship to graduating high school seniors who excel in leadership, academics, and athletics. The Balanced Man Program, our new member development program, has gained national recognition among all fraternity development programs.

Sigma Phi Epsilon is a commitment to a lifetime responsibility of Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love. Being a Sig Ep does not end when you graduate. We consider it a lifetime responsibility.

L he Tau Epsilon Phi creed emphasises the ideals of friendships, chivalry, and service. We strive each day to live up to these ideals set forth by our founders. Within the community, we have participated in Celebrity Baggers. This was to raise money for the Cancer Society. We have also participated actively in Habitat for Humanity, building houses for the homeless and underpriveleged.

TEP was founded on the principles of complete nondiscrimination. We believe all men are created equal. Tau Epsilon Phi stresses the impotance of being a leader on campus as well as in the fraternity. We also believe that hard work has to be paired with recreation. The sanctity of brotherhood is our greatest asset!

We have made the move to South Campus and are the only fraternity to actively rush both campuses. This gives us an opportunity for diversification. This move has enabled TEP to be more active within the Greek community. We participated in many different activities sponsored by fraternities and sororities. As well as having mixers with different sororities. We look forward to answering any questions that you might have. Brotherhood---an unbreakable bond for life!!!

▲ au Kappa Epsilon is the largest International Fraternity in the world, with over 400 chapters and colonies in the United States and Canada. Since its founding in 1899, TKE has had a reputation of excellence.

The Sigma Alpha chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon has been one of the top fraternities since its founding in 1985 at Florida International University. TKE has excelled in every part of fraternal life, from philanthropy to social, and from academics to athletics. Tekes also enjoy a social calendar filled with mixers, parties, and alumni events. TKE has won Greek Week from 1991-1993, placed first among fraternities in Homecoming 1995, and won its first ever IFC Football and Soccer Championships in 1995. Truly, TKE has set a new standard at FIU.

In the summer of 1995, the International Conclave of TKE was hald in Washington, D.C., with delegates from each chapter in attendance. A momentous decision was made to establish a new membership development program that builds character and leadership in each of our gentlemen. This program is Tau Kappa Epsilons' Apollo Project.

In TKE, we pride ourselves on the closeness and strength of our brotherhood. Our achievements and the brotherhood are reflective of our desire for quality members who will contribute to the ongoing success of our fraternity. If you want to become a part of a great fraternity with a great tradition, then Tau Kappa Epsilon is for you.

TKE, a choice to belong, a challenge to become!

Greek Life

What Can Greek Life Offer?

Greek life is a unique dimension of the college experience for which there is no substitute. It is the interaction of individuals, all learning how to exist and function in close association and harmony with others. Greek life is a dynamic experience which requires the coordination and organization of good leadership. Within the University community, the Greek system provides opportunities for you to develop to your fullest potential.

Brotherhood and Sisterhood

One of the greatest assets of joining a Greek organization is the sense of brotherhood and sisterhood. Making the transition from high school to university is one of the toughest challenges students face. Fortunately, the Greek system at FIU can help alleviate part of the burden brought on by this transition. Fraternity and sorority members share common goals and ideals and within each organization members strive to attain such goals. As a member of the Greek system, students have the opportunity to meet new people and make lasting friendships, enabling them to develop socially and intellectually. With all of the challenges students face, it helps to have an assurance that the strong bond formed through friendship is there to support them throughout their collegiate experience.

Leadership

Membership in a fraternity or sorority provides an opportunity to participate in a wide variety of activities that teach cooperation and acceptance of responsibility. For example, offices and chairmanships of committees with Greek organizations provide opportunities to develop leadership abilities. Also, students are able to use their unique talents and interests while serving on committees and assisting with chapter projects. These skills will prepare you both professionally and personally to be an effective leader.

Scholarship

One of the greatest challenges in college is academic achievement. Academics is the top priority and each organization strives to achieve excellence among its members. With the experience of upperclassman, Greeks are able to obtain personal guidance in planning a curriculum, choosing classes and instructors, and receiving assistance with registration. In addition to chapters' scholastic recognition, Order of Omega sponsors an award ceremony at the end of the academic year. This function is held to recognize individual and chapter achievements in scholarship and leadership.

Service

One of the most rewarding aspects of membership in fraternities and sororities is service. The chapters at FIU show support and responsibility for the community by donating time to various service projects. Some of the major philanthropies include: March of Dimes, American Heart Association and American Diabetes Association, it is obvious that the Greeks at FIU are very involved in our community.

Social

Fraternities and sororities are social organizations; one of their major goals is to encourage personal development through social interaction. The social life offered by the FIU Greek system is unmatched on campus in terms of variety, scope, and enjoyment. Social functions allow members to develop poise, personality and self-confidence. The Greek social calendar ranges from informal parties to formal dinners, and includes mixers with other organizations. The social programs offered by fraternities and sororities are among the truly unique assets of Greek life on campus and greatly enhance the college experience. The friends made and memories collected by chapter members will remain for years after graduation from FIU.

The Power of 2%

Since the founding of the American College fraternity movement in 1776, fraternities have grow to symbolize leadership, independence, scholastic achievement, and service to their various campuses and communities.

Fraternity men represent a very small percentage, only 2% of the male population in the United States. However, the 2% is a very powerful group of individuals! Fraternity men have gone on to hold many of the top positions in our nation, from the business world to the political agenda.

- Approximately 80% of the top executive of Fortune 500 companies are fraternity men.
- The majority (71%) of those listed in Who's Who in America are fraternity men.
- 40% of the 47 Supreme Court Justices since 1910 have been fraternity men.
- 100 of the 158 cabinet members since 1900 have been fraternity men.
- All but two United States Presidents since 1825 have been fraternity men.

It is certainly no surprise that today's college and university students express a keen interest in the Greek system. The opportunities are endless and the benefits speak for themselves. Each year thousands of young men enter the working world with the advantage of fraternity experience and alumni contacts.

Interfraternity Council

The Interfraternity Council (IFC) is made up of voting delegates from each of the fraternities at Florida International University. It serves as the governing body for fraternities and oversees fraternity life at the University. The IFC provides guidance and assistance to fraternities through various programs aimed at developing academics, athletics, leadership, service, and social interaction. This central organization for the fraternity system also provides regulations for the fraternities in order to maintain harmony and balance among the member organizations in reference to rush and social activities.

Created only seven years ago, IFC is still a maturing organization. The nine national fraternities on campus include Delta Chi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Alph Mu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Tau Epsilon Phi, and Tau Kappa Epsilon. As a group, IFC is moving towards concepts of rushing, new ways of interacting among themselves, and encouraging methods of uniting and becoming a family.

Rho Alpha

A Rho Alpha Counselor is a person who is chosen to work with the IFC during Rush, to help guide the rushees and to serve as a liaison between the rushees and the fraternity system. A Rho Alpha Counselor is someone who is knowledgeable of the Greek system at FIU, and who will be able to take you through each step of the Rush process. He knows about each part of Rush, pledging, initiation, and all of the Greek activities. During the two weeks of Rush, your Rho Alpha Counselor will be available to offer you advice and helpful information on how to choose the right fraternity best suited for your needs.

National Pan-Hellenic Council

The Executive Board

Dear FIU Family:

It gives us great pleasure to present to you the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) for the 1997-1998 year! The NPHC is currently composed of nine (9) National Greek letter fraternities and sororities: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Kappa Alph Psi Fraternity, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. Six of the nine members are currently registered at FIU, or are in the process of chartering.

"Unanimity of thought and action" was the main stated purpose of the NPHC that was organized May 1930 on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C. Today, the NPHC is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana and the function of the organization is to promote interaction, encourage cooperation and provide support for each member fraternity and sorority in the furtherance of their national programs. Through national and regional conferences, meetings, and an NPHC newsletter, members exchange information and address issues of mutual concern.

The bond that unites each organization is its dedication to serve as conduits by which action plans could be formulated and coordinated to address the problems of today. Its continual legacy of promoting unity and social action has moved the African-American community forward and has forever changed the American Society as a whole. Here at FIU, we welcome all men and women who are interested in learning more about the NPHC and its nine organizations. Whether it be service, academic aid, or networking, NPHC has it, and so much more...

Best wishes to a prosperous academic year!

Intake Process

Since each organization of the NPHC has different criteria for admission, intake processes are continually scheduled to be announced. Students who are interested in joining any of the organizations are encourages to attend events, i.e. announced NPHC events, Greek Expo Night, the Minority Student Services Odyssey Orientation, the Welcome Back Extravaganza, and Freshmen Picnic, to name a few. Information will be on hand for all inquiries.

Financial Information

Financial information differs for each organization of the NPHC. Currently, there are three organizations who are awaiting their charters for FIU chapters. Financial information is often revealed at various individual organization intake meetings. Some financial costs are initial one time fees, again, differing amongst each organization.

Eligibility To Rush

Each organization has set standards and criteria in order to join. In most cases, students must have a cumulative grade point average of a 2.5, and must be at least of second semester, freshmen status. In some organizations, students must be of sophomore standing. Students must also be enrolled at Florida International University.

In NPHC, we pride ourselves with the many accomplishments of service we have brought to our community. On May 23, 1997, NPHC hosted its annual High School Daze Workshop. The purpose of the program is to encourage high school students to continue their education to the college level. This year, NPHC received great response, and over 70 student attendees of the Dade County Public Schools.

In addition, NPHC continually hosts various workshops, and other events to conquer many of the problems of today's society. As evident, the NPHC holds strongly to its historic ideals.

Panhellenic Council

The Creed

We, the Undergraduate Members of women's fraternities, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for maintenance of fine standards, and for serving, to the best of our ability, our college community. Cooperation for further fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We, the Fraternity Women of America, stand for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live.

The Executive Board

Dear New Student:

As the President of the Panhellenic Council at Florida International University, I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to our panther family. The Panhellenic Council is the governing body for all National Sororities. The Council strives to develop qualities of friendship, academic excellence, and community service within the sororities at FIU. Currently there are five national sororities at Florida International University: Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Phi Epsilon, Phi Mu, Phi Sigma Sigma, and Sigma Sigma Sigma, all of which are highly esteemed National Sororities.

Joining a sorority is taking part in the making of the history of all women. Sororities began over 100 years ago by women who believed in strength of friendship and womanhood. This strength became the essence of their power to instill qualities of service and leadership in the lives of women nationwide. Today this tradition still continues, and you are invited to join the bonds of our sisterhood.

The Panhelllenic Council encourages you to meet the women of the FIU sororities through our 1997 Formal Rush Week. Joining a sorority is a dynamic experience which will provide opportunities for you to develop to your fullest potential. This week has proved to be unforgettable for many women, and we hope that you will choose to experience it for yourself.

We look forward to meeting you, and once again, on behalf of all the sororities at Florida International University, we welcome you to our family.

Rho Chi

Rho Chi's have been around since the beginning of national Formal Rush and have always been the pivotal point of rotational party week for all rushees. The Greek letters "Rho Chi;" stand for Rush Counselor. Rho Chi's are all Greek women who have disaffiliated from their organization to serve as mentors, confidants, and mostly a rushees best friend during rush. Rho Chi's have all gone through an application, interview, and four month long training process in the preparation for Fall Rush. Throughout this time, Rho Chi's form their own identity, and form friendships which will last even after re-affiliation. The Rho Chi's aim is to ensure the happiness and comfort os all rushees and help all new students to adjust to life at FIU. A Rho Chi is a representative of all National Member Sororities with the National Panhellenic Council.

Rush Guidelines

1. A rushee shall not be, nor ever have been, and initiated member of a National Panhellenic (NPC) Group.

- 2. All rushees shall be fully matriculated (12 credits or 9 credits and four classes, one of which being the Non-credit Algebra course, Labs will not be accepted as the fourth class.) at Florida International University. Special status students are not eligible to Rush.
- 3. A rushee shall not have been a pledge to an NPC group at the same school where she is a rushee within a calendar year.
- 4. Rushees are asked to attend all assigned parties. Exceptions can only be made by the Panhellenic Rush Chairperson in consultation with the Panhellenic Advisor. In the event of illness or an emergency, a rushee should notify the Rush Chairman or her Rho Chi.
- 5. A rushee shall consult her Rho Chi or the Panhellenic Advisor before withdrawing from Rush.
- 6. An oral invitation to join a sorority is not valid, and is a direct violation of Rush Policies. Bids must be given in writing on Bid Day.
- 7. A student's name must be entered on a master Rush List in order to participate in formal Rush and be properly registered in order to be issued party invitations.
- 8. Rushees will be guided to Rush Parties by their Rho Chi.
- 9. A rushee shall fill out the Preferential Bid Card within one hour of the last preference party she attends. The preference card will be turned into the Panhellenic Advisor. Once a card has been signed and turned in, NO CHANGE may be made.
- 10. Any rushee signing a Preferential Bid Card and receiving a bid at the end of the Rush process shall be bound by agreement for a calendar year while she is at Florida International University.
- 11. Panhellenic recommends that rushees not single intentional preference. Single intentional preference means putting only sorority down on the Preferential Bid Card.
- 12. A $10 Rush registration fee will be required at the time of registration.
- 13. If a Rush infraction takes place, it must be reported within 10 days. Only rushees, or a sorority as a whole, or a Rush Counselor may report a Rush Infraction.
