

THE INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC POLICY AND CITIZENSHIP STUDIES

*Cordially Invites
Faculty and Graduate Students
To A*

Featured Speaker:

KATHLEEN C. HALE
Director, Metro-Dade Office of Emergency Management

"THE ROLE OF HIGHER EDUCATION IN EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT"

As Director of the Metro-Dade Office of Emergency Management, Kate Hale played a pivotal role in coordinating national, state and local governments in preparation for Hurricane Andrew and in disaster relief efforts in the immediate aftermath. Her demand for greater accountability from federal, state and local government brought about immediate results in the crucial days following the disaster.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14
12:30 P.M. - 1:30 P.M.

UNIVERSITY PARK CAMPUS
FACULTY CLUB
Third Floor, Graham Center

FREE SALAD BAR AND BEVERAGE