

Historic Virginia Key Beach Park Circulation Road and Parking Lot Improvements – Activities and Special Projects

Initial vegetative and debris clearing lead the way.

Clearing continued while proper sand and fill material were added.

A comprehensive storm water drainage system was constructed.

Land grading and compaction formed the contours of the parking lot.

Initial asphalt paving began and the introduction of light fixtures.

Part of the new pedestrian walkway cuts through the Coconut Grove.

Light fixture installation and paving are currently underway.

The Dade Marine Institute Volunteered their services to the Trust.

Trustee Maud Newbold participated in a made for TV documentary on Lord Cultural Resources.

Flag poles now grace the front of the Historic Concession Stand Building.

The Virginia Key Beach Park Historic Maker

Trust Staffer, Guy Forchion, directs university students during a Green Build design competition.

Board Secretary, Mark Walters gives Miami-Dade College faculty a historical and environmental tour and lesson.

Board Chairman, Gene Tinnie, gives students a history lesson at Historic Virginia Key Beach Park.

Trust Staffer, Quentin Pough, directs volunteer exotic vegetation effort.

Work continues on the Virginia Key Beach Park Trust native plant nursery.

