

Historic Carousel Timeline

February 23, 2008 Historic Virginia Key Beach Park re-opens to the public; historic carousel is rented by the Trust from Midwest Midways in Indiana.

March 3, 2008 Commissioner Marc Sarnoff pledges a $100,000 matching grant to purchase an Allan Herschell carousel for Historic Virginia Key Beach Park.

March 5, 2008 The Trust requests a scope change to its remaining Safe Neighborhood Parks (SNP) funds for the purchase of the Allan Herschell historic carousel from Midwest Midways.

May 1, 2008 SNP Approves scope change to purchase historic carousel. ($200,000)

June 10, 2008 The initial payment for the historic carousel was paid. ($50,000 DCF)

July 7, 2008 The balance of the carousel was paid. ($200,000 SNP)

January 23, 2008 The electrical connections to the historic carousel were completed. ($47,000 HD2)

February 1, 2009 Historic carousel re-opened to the public.

Historic Carousel Fundraising Timeline

March 3, 2008 Commissioner Marc Sarnoff pledges a $100,000 matching grant to purchase an Allan Herschell carousel for Historic Virginia Key Beach Park.

July 7, 2008 The balance of the carousel was paid. ($200,000)

June 10, 2008 The initial payment for the historic carousel was paid. ($50,000)

January 23, 2008 The electrical connections to the historic carousel were completed. ($47,000)

February 1, 2009 Historic carousel re-opened to the public.