My Dear Senator:-

I assume that you saw the Editorial in the Orlando Reporter-Star of March 17th, 1916, entitled "Going After Results". You seem to have a very staunch friend in the Editor, J. H. Reese.

I saw Mr. Reese when I was in Orlando at the "Florida First" convention, March 9th-10th, and had a long talk with him about the Everglades situation.

Wishing you all manner of good things, I am,

Yours very truly,
