Sunday Night
March 4, 1923.

Captain J. T. Jordan,
Miami, Fla.

Dear Captain,
We missed
connection at Birmingham and got in here
this morning, twenty four hours late.
I promised to wire
you yesterday, but did not get here and after being with Mr. McLeod

all day I did not know anything that I could tell you in a wire,
so am writing you a letter instead.

Mr. McLeod did not say what he would do
about the Chatham Bend proposition; but said he would first
want to know what the Bristow people are going to do, and then he would put the proposition up to ~~the~~ Hopkins and the Floete executors. In other words he thinks they will want to ~~#~~ know that that the Cherdier, Co. sponsion and the road work are going to be adeq. uately financed before they agree to pay in any money on the Chatham Bend proposition.

From the way he talks I think everything will be all right if the Bristow deal goes through,
provided Hopkins and the Floete interests consent.

I leave at 11 o'clock tonight for home and will arrive there tomorrow morning. This will make five nights in succession on the train all night, with little sound sleep.

I will go to Bristow Tuesday and find out what those people are going to do and will then write again as soon as I find out.

You can show this letter to Capt. Cook, as I am going to the train
now and will not write another letter.

With best regards to all,
D. A. McDougall
