My dear Captain. Please excuse pencil, but I have to do this so I can send Mr. Lynn a copy, for I want to let him also know of my progress.

I am very much encouraged this morning since my work yesterday, for Sen. Fletcher really got busy today on our proposition and the R. F. C. have invited me back for Monday to see if we can set up the proposition to conform to the requirements of the laws, and with the R. F. C. wanting to help, I feel that we may be successful. There have been many handicaps, but I have been digging into them very hard. In the first place
