

October 1, 1926.

Mrs. Marjory Stoneman Douglas,
14 Harrison Street,
Taunton, Massachusetts.

Dear Mrs. Douglas:

Replying to your letter of September 15th trust that you have gotten in touch with Miss Hanley and that you will soon forward us check covering the amounts due on this account.

As, of course, you know the storm here was very bad and much damage done, and also a great loss of life, but everyone is working hard and Miami will soon be herself again.

Kindly let us hear from you at the earliest possible date as it is very necessary that we make collections at this time.

Very truly yours,

Bookkeeping Department.

P. S. We have today had a meeting of our Overseas League and it was very interesting and very sad to hear the reports made by the different members of not only their experiences but of cases that came under their observation. We will meet at the Everglades Apartments on the first Friday in November, and trust you will be with us then.