

SAMUEL ROWLAND GINSBURG
MEMBER OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS
ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY NASSAU STREET
NEW YORK

July 10 th., 1919.

Captain J. F. Jaudon,
Miami, Florida.

Dear sir:

In accordance with our agreement in connection with the examination of your properties, extent of lands suitable for the growing of sugar cane etc., and a report covering my investigations, I am submitting below my bill of expenditure.

12 days (June 25th. to July 6th. inc.)	$300.00
New York to Jacksonville, R.R. Fare,	39.59
" " " Meals etc.,	9.10
Hotel at Jacksonville,	4.00
Jacksonville to Miami, R.R. Fare,	14.55
" " " Meals etc.,	4.00
Miami to Fort Myers, R.R. Fare,	21.98
" " " Meals etc.,	9.10
Fort Myers to Jacksonville, R.R. Fare,	12.16
" " " Meals etc.,	2.60
Jacksonville to New York, R.R. Fare,	39.91
" " " Meals etc.,	10.30
Total,	$467.29

Baggage transfers in New York and incidental expenses, including telegrams, have been omitted.

Yours very truly,

S. R. Ginsburg

*PA.
7-27-19
C. F. J. J.*