

Naples Florida Apr. 10th 1953

Before me, a Notary Public, personally appeared Thomas Weeks who being duly sworn,
states as follows;

That he has been employed by Alexander, Rumsey and Kice
in the building of the Tamiami Trail near Everglade, Florida;
that, since the petition was circulated among the laborers asking the location of the County Seat at Everglade, he and his crew have been discharged and all work discontinued on the road.
In addition to this, more than fifty men, who were working at Everglade at the time of the signing of this petition, have been discharged and gone from Everglade.
