

June 30th, 1918.

Mr. J. B. Ingraham,
Vice-President,
St. Augustine, Fla.

Dear Sir:

We have your wire of the 30th inst. reading:

"Instruct Fowers to come to St. Augustine, Passes in today's mail."

We rather expected Mr. Fowers to be here before today but he has evidently not received our last letter and is waiting at Cape Sable for you. We are writing him today that you have returned to St. Augustine and have mailed passes here for him to come up and see you.

We have had Mr. Russell out for a while this morning showing him around. Took him down to the grove and met Mr. Hinson. He seemed delighted at the condition of the grove. He will go out north of Miami this afternoon.

Yours very truly,

RSP

Later:

Mr. Fowers has just gotten word to us over the railroad wires that he intends coming to Miami on the evening train, and if your passes reach us he will likely come on to St. Augustine tomorrow.

Popper.
