You have asked the heirs and they don't want the land. Ask the Executor when he is qualified and if he does not want to buy the land for the Estate sell it to Mrs. Marshall the widow. This depends somewhat on the date of Marshall's death of which please advise me.

M.
As the Executor and heirs don't want to buy, but want to sell to Mrs. Marshall I would do so.

Carlton Marshall died April 14, 1917 -
Dr. Kennedy, the Executor named in the will, but not yet qualified, wants the deed made to Mrs. Marshall.
