

COPY

Atlanta, July 28, 1920.

Model Land Company,
Miami,
Florida.

Attention Mr. Ingraham.

Dear Mr. Ingraham:

We are satisfied that no one in your company, realizes the money stringency; and, confidentially, we have to insist on those that owe us and are able to pay, to settle.

The $1781, still due us is an enormous amount from our standpoint, whereas with your company it is a very small matter.

We are satisfied you would rather pay the money, but under the circumstances, we could discount a short term acceptance from you with our bank; and we sincerely hope that you will send us a check or a short term acceptance to reach us by the latter part of this week.

With highest personal regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

J. B. McCrary

treasurer.

From

J. B. MCCRARY ENGINEERING CORPORATION

Atlanta, Ga.