St. Augustine, Fla., Dec. 19th, 1917.

Mr. Fredk. S. Morse,
Miami, Fla.

Dear Sir:-

I have written Mr. Powers as per copy attached, advising him that sometime within the next month or so I want to arrange to take Mr. Kenan from Miami through to Cape Sable via land, if the trip can be made in a fairly comfortably way, coming back by boat via Marathon and rail, and I will be glad to have you discuss with Mr. Powers as to best way to make the trip. Mr. Kenan is very anxious to see that country, and is very much interested, but I would'nt like to take a trip that would entail too much exposure, as I am not very strong.

Would be glad to hear from you.

Yours very truly,

Dict. JEI
Encl.

J. E. Ingraham
Vice-President.
