Mr. F. S. Morse,

Dear Sir:

We are awaiting some word from you as to the recent application of David B. Dice, whose record in a former contract was so questionable that we wrote you June 24th, reciting the circumstances, and asking your investigation into the matter. Please let us have a reply to that letter of June 24th, as we are holding this check for $67.00 and commission receipt for $45.00 pending a determination in the matter.

Yours truly,

J. E. Ingraham
President. H.
