Miami, Florida, June 11th, 1929.

Senator John W. Watson.
Senate Chamber.
Tallahassee, Florida.

Elected yesterday by largest vote ever given supervisor, extra large meeting in person and proxy.

Landowners asked we set aside tax for 1929 as we did by legislative special act 1927, this we were unable to grant as tax for 1929 is already assessed and partially collected, where redemptions have been made. Meeting highly commended you and myself for granting them tax relief in 1927.

As special session is only for the purpose of taxation and tax relief would it not be possible to have passed in the short time left a bill somewhere along the lines as embodied in separate telegram to follow.
Answer Western Union Collect.

I know Mrs. Watson will be happy to hear I am re-elected.

Joe Conrad.
