May 5, 1923.

To Messrs. J. H. Bright,
and Frank J. Pepper,
Miami, Florida.

Gentlemen:

I have a telegram from F. C. Elliot, State Drainage Engineer, in which he stated that he received the telegram of Mr. Blain and myself about new drainage district. He further states that the new district has been completed and does not extend outside of Everglades Drainage District and that situation regarding proposed new district is such that, in his judgment, it is not advisable to extend the boundaries of Everglades Drainage District. In other words the Biscayne Drainage District is not and will not be in the new district. The only thing left is for Biscayne Drainage District to go ahead. What do you say?

Yours very truly,
