My dear Mrs. Radley:

I have your letter of April 21st, and I certainly appreciate your interest.

I hope to be in New York during the Biennial, and it will certainly give me great pleasure to meet you.

The national officers of the Federation, as well as our Florida club women, are wonderfully interested in the subject of the Seminoles, and the more publicity we can give this hungry, homeless people, the more hope we have that the next legislature will make them a grant of land; and but for a very small handful of speculators they would have been on homes of their own seventeen years ago.

The Secretary of the Interior writes me, asking that we keep the subject alive, so that public opinion will be molded in the interest of these Seminoles; and they stand ready to help us just as soon as the Seminoles can get an abiding place where they will not be driven from their homes constantly.

We have a fine club here, and I will have the names sent to you, hoping that you will get a number of new subscribers from among them.

When I come to New York, I will call you up, as I expect to be there about the 17th of May.

Very sincerely,

MMW-RP
