My dear Mrs. Willson:-

I certainly do congratulate you you upon the final victory of justice over greed!

I had your card yesterday, and have filed it with my Indian reports and literature, and I am very happy to know that I had even a small part in this righteous legislation.

Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Young and Miss Meigs are all delighted over your triumph-- and send cordial congratulations.

Funny, wasn't it--that mistake of Mr. Kessler? God moves in a mysterious way! I do not doubt that it was Providence.

With cordial regards to Mr.
Willson, and much love for yourself, believe me,

Affectionately Yours,

Millie P. Jennings
