My dear Mrs Wilson-

I certainly do feel as if I had been deprived of a real pleasure, in that I have not been able to get to my pen for several weeks. I have had a housefull of sick company. I think your achievement the best the women of the state, or rather any woman of the state ever accomplished. How did you do it?

I read all about it in the papers, and then met Mrs Frank J. who told me she had heard from you. And just to think//there is no possible way for a certain person to claim it// You know it is a joke here about the claims that are made in regard to things done. A certain body proclaims in loud tones that SHE DID IT. All our men and women look upon the lady as a huge joke. Please accept my heartiest congratulations, not only for the splendid work, but that my faith and belief, in that good ~~that~~ comes to pass, even tho' there are many obstacles.

Yours with love-

Margaret Rankin Jung

Did you mlti
Mrs Clarke y Lord?
So so.
