Irvington, June 2, 1917.

My dear Mrs. Willson:

I am perfectly delighted to hear of your triumph, and heartily congratulate you. You deserve untold credit for holding on until success came at last. Many would have lost heart long ago. Your unselfishness and devotion are most admirable, and I am happy for you and the Seminoles. I am sure my Grandfather Giddings must breathe a benediction upon you if he knows of this on the other side.

It pleases me to be assured that my sympathy was even the least bit comforting, and I hope that fate may again bring us together. With very best wishes for your health and happiness, believe me

Sincerely your friend,

Grace Julian Clarke
