

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER
WASHINGTON

January 30, 1930.

My dear Mrs. Willson:

I have your letter of recent date and was very glad to hear from you.

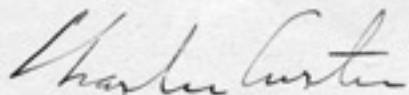

Thank you for writing me in regard to the Seminoles. I assure you when your book is received it will be read with great interest. I have been very greatly interested in the Seminoles of Florida, helped to secure the first appropriations to secure schools years ago.

I note with pleasure what you say about Miss Gadeberg.

Hope you are having a pleasant time in Florida.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Mrs. James M. Willson, Jr.,

Kissimmie, Florida.
