Mr. James M. Carson
Attorney at Law
Miami, Florida

Dear Jim:

Your most interesting letter was received just a few minutes ago and I hasten to answer; to tell you that I certainly remember Ruby Leach with the greatest pleasure - how very attractive she was and how she helped me in that wonderful visit I made to Miami. Give her my very best love. I regret that she is not feeling well, so tell her to make you take good care of her.

I am delighted to know that your Mother has taken up her painting again with such success. I think it is marvellous that she can do this now after all these years. Give her and Anne too, my love.

I do want to thank you most sincerely Jim for the interest you took in securing for me the name of your Grandfather as the man who named Osceola County. It was certainly a memorable thing and his name will go down in history for doing this. I had tried so hard and repeatedly to find who named the county. Mr. Ellis E. Davis suggested that you might be able to help me, with the result as I received in your letter of today. I have already written that up and want to give full credit to your Grandfather.

Much love to Ruby and your Mother. I am remembering you as having told someone that if it had not been for me you would not have learned the Ten Commandments, which I hope you still remember.

Kindest regards to all, I am

Sincerely yours,

Minnie Moore Willson
