Mr. J. M. Willson, Jr.,
Kissimmee, Fla.

Dear Mr. Willson:

Just a line to say that the House Committee this afternoon voted to favorably report the Seminole bill, without any amendment. Since the Attorney-General has given his opinion that the legislature can direct the I. I. Board to make such a reservation, we are hopeful that the Senate Committee ~~will~~ may make a similar report. But, of course, that yet remains to be seen.

We feel that a good start has been made, and now we have something to work on with the House.

Sincerely yours,

M. K. Sniffen

I expect to be here until Friday afternoon.
