Hon. P.C. Elared, Clerk of C.C.
Fort Pierce Fla.

Dear Sir:-

You may remember some correspondence we had in Nov. 1919. You cancelled and sent me the tax certificate covering 80 acres of land held by our Seminole Society for the benefit of the Indians.

At that time I wrote to your Assessor requesting that the land be not listed for taxes, as it was exempt.

Recently I heard that a Mr. W.L. Coats had a certificate on this land again. Before I write to the Comptroller I wish you would kindly give me the facts in the case.

Thanking you in advance for your assistance to get this matter cleared up, I beg to remain,

Very Truly Yours,
