

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
Introduction	7
I The Elderberry, Cocoplum and Custard Apple	15
II Cypress Pine and Pencil Cedar	26
III Native Rubbers	33
IV The Australian Pine and Cajeput	42
V Mahogany and Cedrela	48
VI Cocopalm	57
VII Bamboo	63
VIII The Sweet Gum and Other Southern Swamp Products	70
IX The Candlenut Tree	75
X List of Trees Which May in Time Find a Place in Everglade Economy	81

A glade is an comes from a
"bright." It has Suddenly emerg
to see how the sunny, grassy an
to time, it serves
les little glades
explain how the
into being to sig
that bowl of mus
known from ear

A swamp is la
that it cannot be the year without water is often a
the roots of trees
home, where the aquatic, but the plumaged birds
grave has added
of Florida.

A swamp-forest
millions of acres
water throughout
very wet or dry
prefer such condi
is salt water th
logically dry, w
water storage tim

Writing in 1570
name of Mayan
large." It is mo