

ILLUSTRATIONS.

	PAGE		PAGE
In the Everglades	Frontispiece	"The desperate leaps of our frightened horses"	104
The "Wandering Wind" bound out	13	"His plantation was a mile away, in the cypress hammock"	105
Florida Coast	19	"The next day the performance began"	109
Lighthouse on the Coast	23	"The gloom of the cypress"	113
Scissor-Bills fishing	25	"It was a desperate situation"	117
Fishing on the Florida Coast	27	"Impenetrable swamp and gloomy forest"	119
An Episode of the Seminole War	35	On the St. John's	123
"Numerous channels running off east and west"	39	Van Buster	126
The House on the Lagoon	43	Flats and Prairies of the St. John's	130
The Naturalist in Florida	47	Hérons	135
"A panther crept stealthily up"	51	"Soon the river resumed its crooked course"	139
Fishing for the Hammer-Fish	55	The Camp on the Island	143
"Seizing a flipper and laying hold beneath the upper shell"	58	A Mounted Warrior	153
Phosphorescence at Sea	59	Indian Scalp-Dance	157
Tiger Tail	65	Indian Burial-Place	161
A Little Bay back of Oleander Point	67	An Incident in Indian Warfare	165
The Great Colony of Pelicans	71	Death of King Philip	169
"A black paw reached up and grasped the rail"	75	Burial of De Soto	173
"Birds that hovered in clouds above the bar"	79	A Curious Floating Island	177
Turtle on the Beach	81	An Unpleasant Neighbor	181
Hunted by the Bear	83	One of the Doctor's Finds	184
"Toting" the Bear	87	The Home of the Heron	187
"As soon as the anchor dropped we all turned in"	91	Hérons and Alligators	193
An Okechobee Indian	93	Green Heron	197
The Murderers' Cabin	95	"I was astride the tail, in the stern of the boat"	200
The Camp in the Pine Woods	97	"Two brawny men soon after entered"	209
"Lang was a shrewd German"	100	A "Walking-Stick"	212
Osceola, Chief of the Seminoles	103		