QUOTES ON IMAM HUSSAIN(A.S)

Mahatma Gandhi (Indian political and spiritual leader):

"I learned from Hussein how to achieve victory while being oppressed."

Thomas Carlyle (Scottish historian and essayist):

"The best lesson which we get from the tragedy of Cerebella is that Husain and his companions were rigid believers in God.

They illustrated that the numerical superiority does not count when it comes to the truth and the falsehood.

The victory of Husain, despite his minority, marvels me!"

Edward Gibbon (English historian and member of parliament):

"In a distant age and climate, the tragic scene of the death of Hosein will awaken the sympathy of the coldest reader."
(The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, London, 1911, volume 5, p. 391-392)

Charles Dickens (English novelist):

"If Husain had fought to quench his worldly desires... then I do not understand why his sister, wife, and children accompanied him. It stands to reason therefore, that he sacrificed purely for Islam."

Antoine Bara (Lebanese writer):

"No battle in the modern and past history of mankind has earned more sympathy and admiration as well as provided more lessons than the martyrdom of Husayn in the battle of Karbala."
(Husayn in Christian Ideology)

Dr. K. Sheldrake:

"Of that gallant band, male and female knew that the enemy forces around were implacable, and were not only ready to fight, but to kill. Denied even water for the children, they remained parched under the burning sun and scorching sands, yet not one faltered for a moment. Husain marched with his little company, not to glory, not to power of wealth, but to a supreme sacrifice, and every member bravely faced the greatest odds without flinching."

Ignaz Goldziher (Hungarian orientalist):

"...Weeping and lamentation over the evils and persecutions suffered by the 'Alid family, and mourning for its martyrs: these are things from which loyal supporters of the cause cannot cease. More touching than the tears of the Shi'is has even become an Arabic proverb."
(Introduction to Islamic Theology and Law, Princeton, 1981, p.179)

Mahatma Gandhi:

"My faith is that the progress of Islam does not depend on the use of sword by its believers, but the result of the supreme sacrifice of Hussain (A.S.), the great saint."

Reynold Alleyne Nicholson:

"Hussain (A.S.) fell, pierced by an arrow, and his brave followers were cut down beside him to the last man. Muhammadan tradition, which with rare exceptions is uniformly hostile to the Umayyad dynasty, regards Hussain (A.S.) as a martyr and Yazid as his murderer."
(A Literary History of the Arabs, Cambridge, 1930, p197)

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru:

"Imam Hussain's (A.S.) sacrifice is for all groups and communities, an example of the path of righteousness."

Dr. Rajendra Prasad:

"The sacrifice of Imam Hussain (A.S.) is not limited to one country, or nation, but it is the hereditary state of the brotherhood of all mankind."

Dr. Radha Krishnan:

"Though Imam Hussain (A.S.) gave his life almost 1300 years ago, but his indestructible soul rules the hearts of people even today."

Swami Shankaracharya

"It is Hussain's (A.S.) sacrifice that has kept Islam alive or else in this world there would be no one left to take Islam's name."

Mrs. Sarojini Naidu

"I congratulate Muslims that from among them, Hussain (A.S.), a great human being was born, who is revered and honored totally by all communities."

Zainab Ne Kaha Baap Ke Khadmon Say Lipat Kar

Ab Aaye Ho Baba

Jab lut gaya pardes mein amma ka bhara ghar
Ab aaye ho baba

Khaimon ko jala kay
Ab aagaye hotein to na chin ti meri chadar
Ab aaye ho baba.

Kya hashr bapa tha
Jab pusht say beemar ki khaincha gaya bistar
Ab aaye ho baba.
